

ELEXIS on a global scale

- ELEXIS activities not limited to Europe, e.g. survey for lexicographers
- Open-source data and tools
- Infrastructure support for lexicographic scientific output:
 - er.lex.is
 - LexBib
- Observer status also open to non-European institutions
- International presence in ELEXIS governance

International Advisory Board (IAB)

- In the course of the first project year the following representatives were appointed by five continental societies and associations for lexicography, through Globalex initiative:
- AFRILEX Danie Prinsloo
 - Department of African Languages University of Pretoria, South Africa
- ASIALEX GAO Yongwei
 - Fudan University, Shanghai, China
- AUSTRALEX Julia Miller
 - School of Education University of Adelaide, Australia
- EURALEX Andrea Abel
 - Institute for Applied Linguistics, EURAC Research, Bolzano/Bozen, Italy
- DSNA Edward Finegan
 - School of Law, University of Southern California, USA

International Advisory Board (IAB) – experts

- Gregory Grefenstette

- Biggerpan, France / Florida
Institute for Human and Machine
Cognition, USA

- Michael Rundell

- MacMillan Publishers, UK

- Patrick Hanks

- University of Wolverhampton, UK

- Philippe Climent

- IDM, Paris, France

- Piek Vossen

- Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam,
Netherlands

- Robert Lew

- Adam Mickiewicz University in
Poznań, Poland

- Ryan McDonald

- Google, USA

- Wendalyn Nichols

- Cambridge University Press, New York, USA

Dr. Annette Klosa-Kückelhaus

GLOBALLEX Workshop on lexicography and neologism

22nd Biennial Meeting of the Dictionary Society of North America at Indiana University Bloomington – 8th May 2019

GWLN 2019

Organized by

- Ilan Kernerman (K Dictionaries, Tel Aviv, Israel)
- Annette Klosa-Kückelhaus (Leibniz Institute for the German Language, Mannheim, Germany)

Endorsed by

Supported by

GWLN 2019

Presenting

- 14 papers with 19 authors
- from Europe, Asia, Africa, and the Americas
- concerning neologisms in 13 languages

Topics

- how to find neologisms
- incorporating neologisms in online dictionaries
- dealing with grammatical, orthographical and pronunciation diversity
- associating encyclopedic information and audio-visual media
- attending to words no longer new or in use
- user interaction in crowdsourcing and dictionary use

GWLN 2019

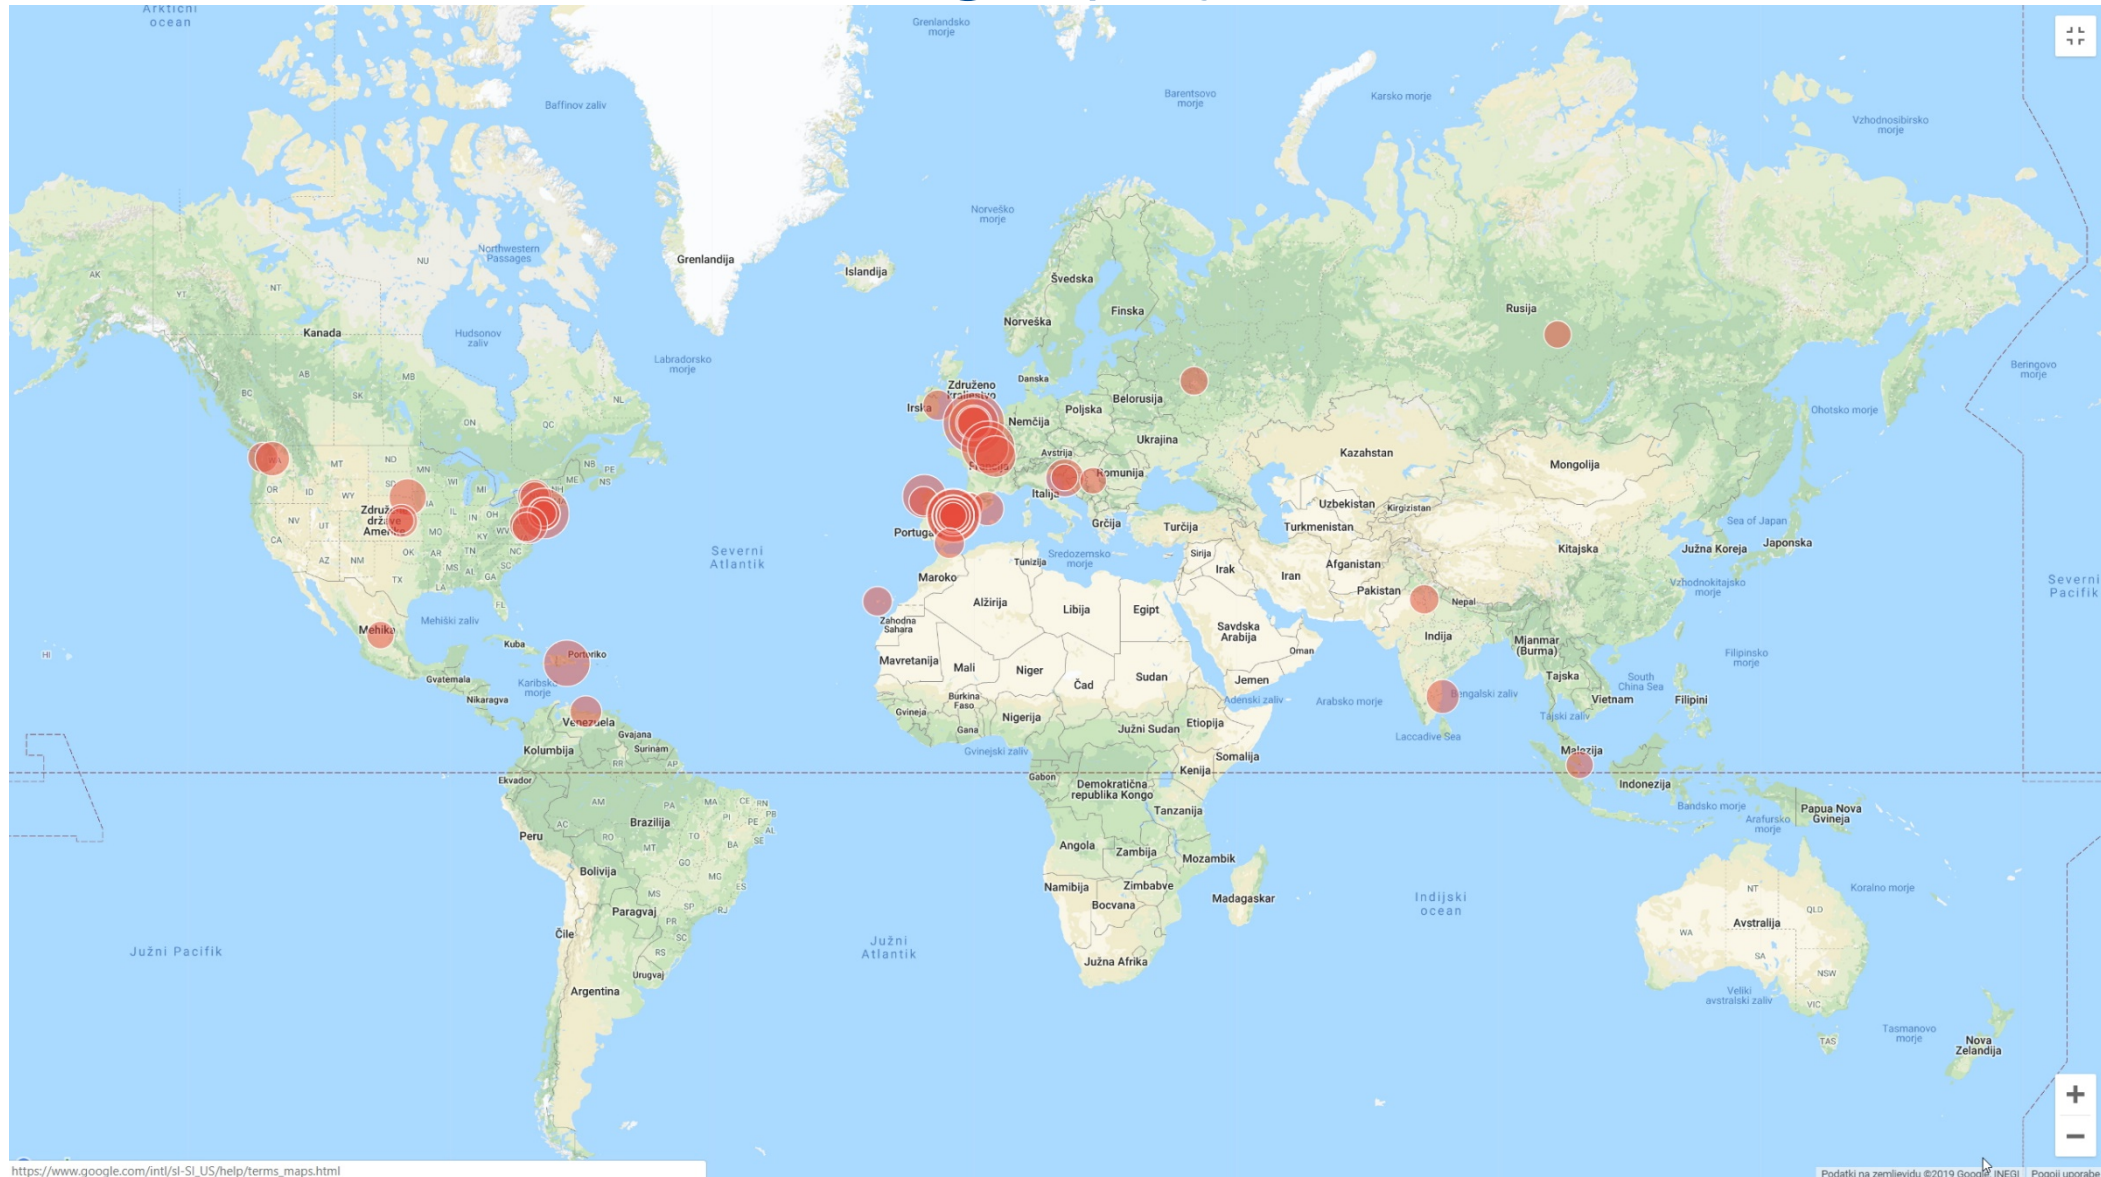

Focus on

- common traits and specific characteristics in the dozen languages plus English
- different challenges, resources and approaches concerning the detection and lexicographic treatment of neologisms
- assessment of the state-of-the-art of neologism and lexicography

Publication

- proceedings on GLOBALEX homepage
- special issue of „Dictionaries“ (selected papers)

Global news on lexicography

https://www.google.com/intl/sl-SI_US/help/terms_maps.html

Podatki na zemljevidu ©2019 Google, INEGI Pogoji uporabe

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No 731015.