

Linking and the Dictionary Matrix

John P. McCrae
Data Science Institute, NUI Galway

ELEXIS Architecture

REST Interface

What is it?

Uniform input standard for the dictionary matrix

Collects basic dictionary and entry information

Supports many formats and use cases

Called by the dictionary matrix

Routes into the Dictionary Matrix

The REST API

- GET Get dictionaries
- GET About the dictionary
- GET Get all lemmas
- GET Headword lookup
- GET Entry as JSON
- GET Entry as Turtle
- GET Entry XML

Documentation Powered by ReDoc

ELEXIS Protocol for accessing dictionaries (Draft)

Download OpenAPI specification: Download

URL: <https://elex.is/> | License: Public Domain

This protocol allows data to be shared with the ELEXIS platform and should be implemented by all providers of data to the ELEXIS platform

Get dictionaries

List all of the dictionaries that are available at this endpoint

Responses

✓ 200 Success

✓ 500 Internal Server Error

About the dictionary

Get the metadata about the dictionary, including the conditions

PATH PARAMETERS

→ dictionary required string

Identifier of the dictionary to describe

GET /dictionaries

Response samples

200

500 application/json

Copy Expand all Collapse all

```
{
  - "dictionaries": [
    "dict1",
    "dict2"
  ]
}
```

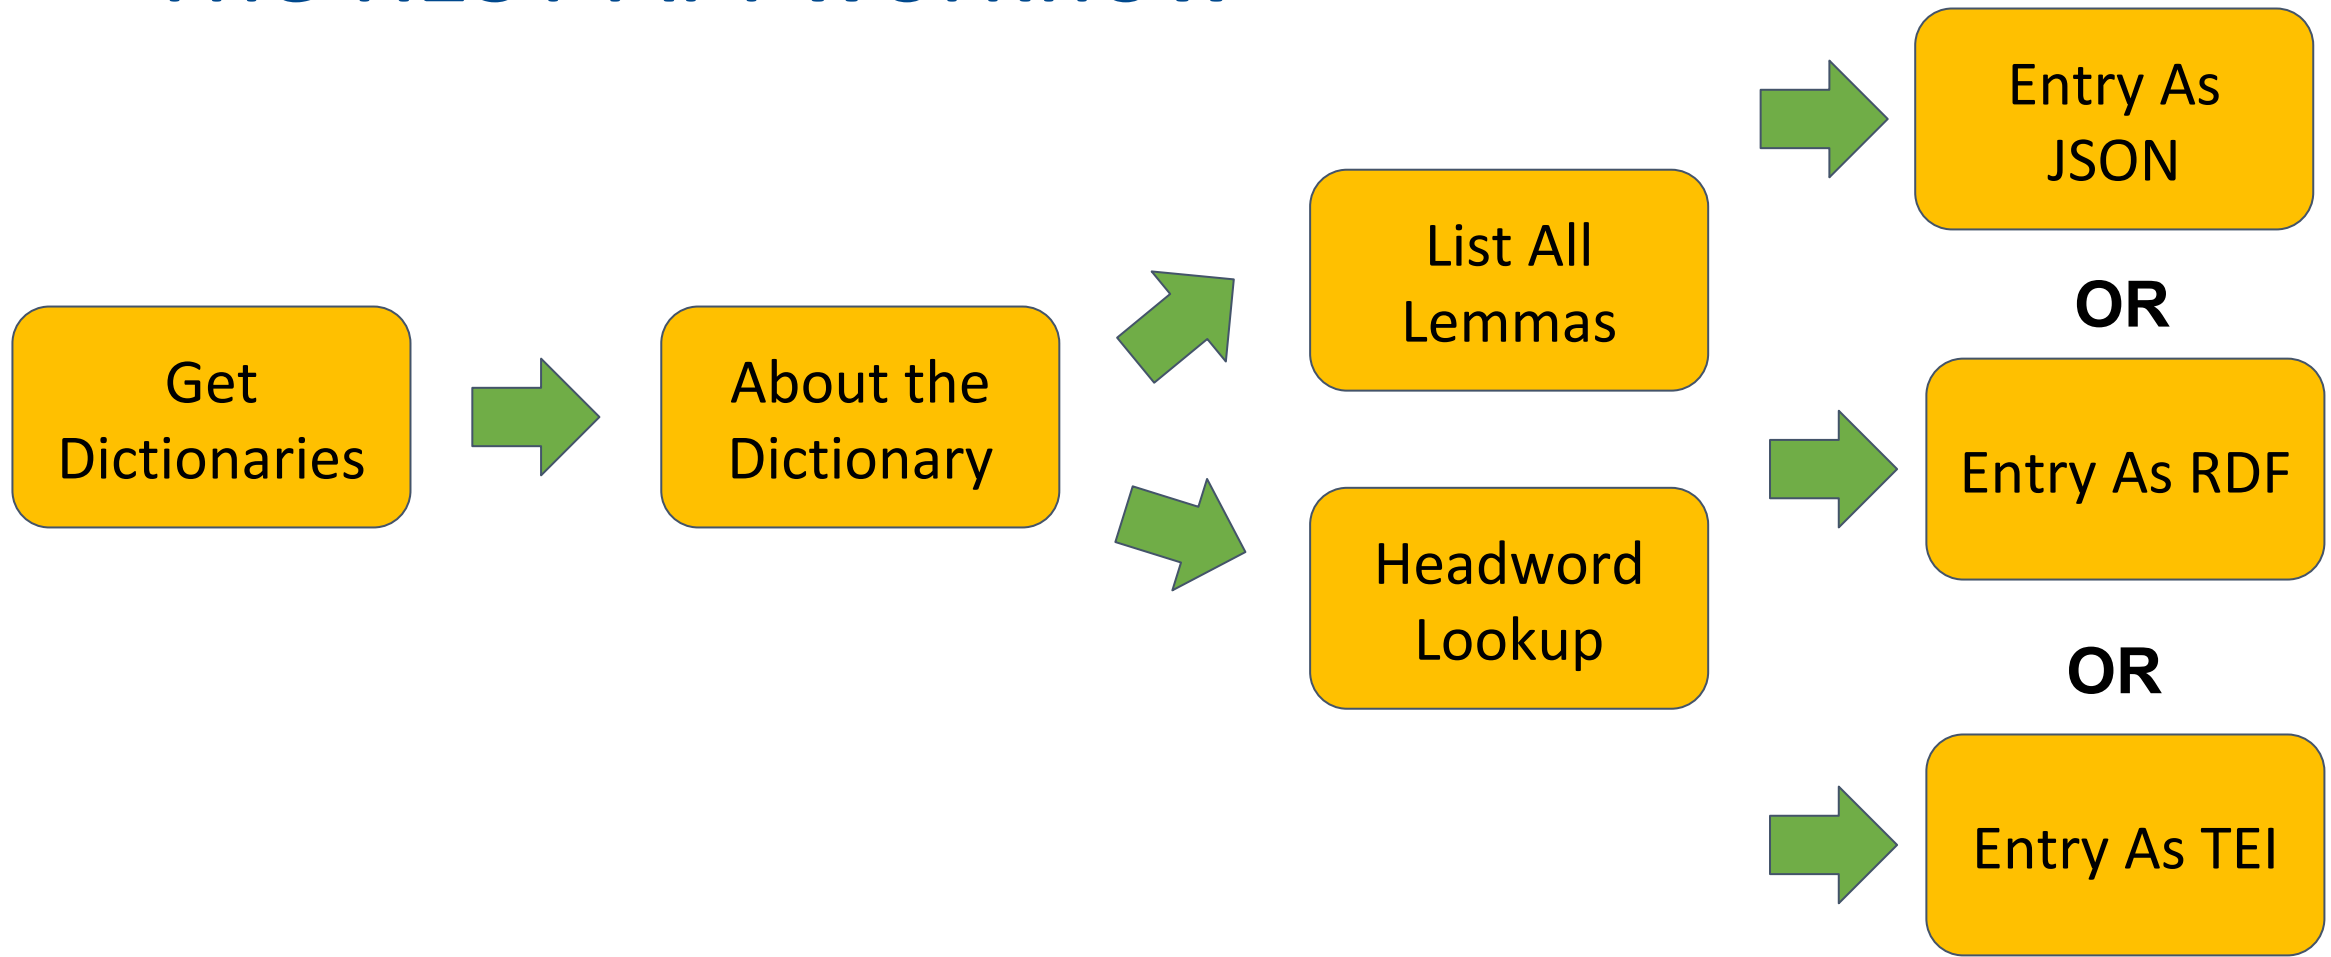

GET /about/{dictionary}

Response samples

application/json

<https://elexis-eu.github.io/elexis-rest/elexis.html>

The REST API workflow

About a dictionary

Release: Public, Non-Commercial, Research, Private

Source Language: The language of the headwords

Target Languages: The languages of the content

Genre: General, Learner's, Etymological, Specialist, Historical, Spelling or Terminological Dictionary (or any combination)

License

Title, Creator, Publisher, ... (plus 48 other properties)

Dictionary Entries

Minimal requirements

- ID
- A lemma
- A language
- One or more part-of-speech from Universal Dependencies:

These are the indexed and public properties in the Matrix Dictionary

ADJ: adjective

ADP: adposition

ADV: adverb

AUX: auxiliary

CCONJ: coordinating conjunction

DET: determiner

INTJ: interjection

NOUN: noun

NUM: numeral

PART: particle

PRON: pronoun

PROPN: proper noun

PUNCT: punctuation

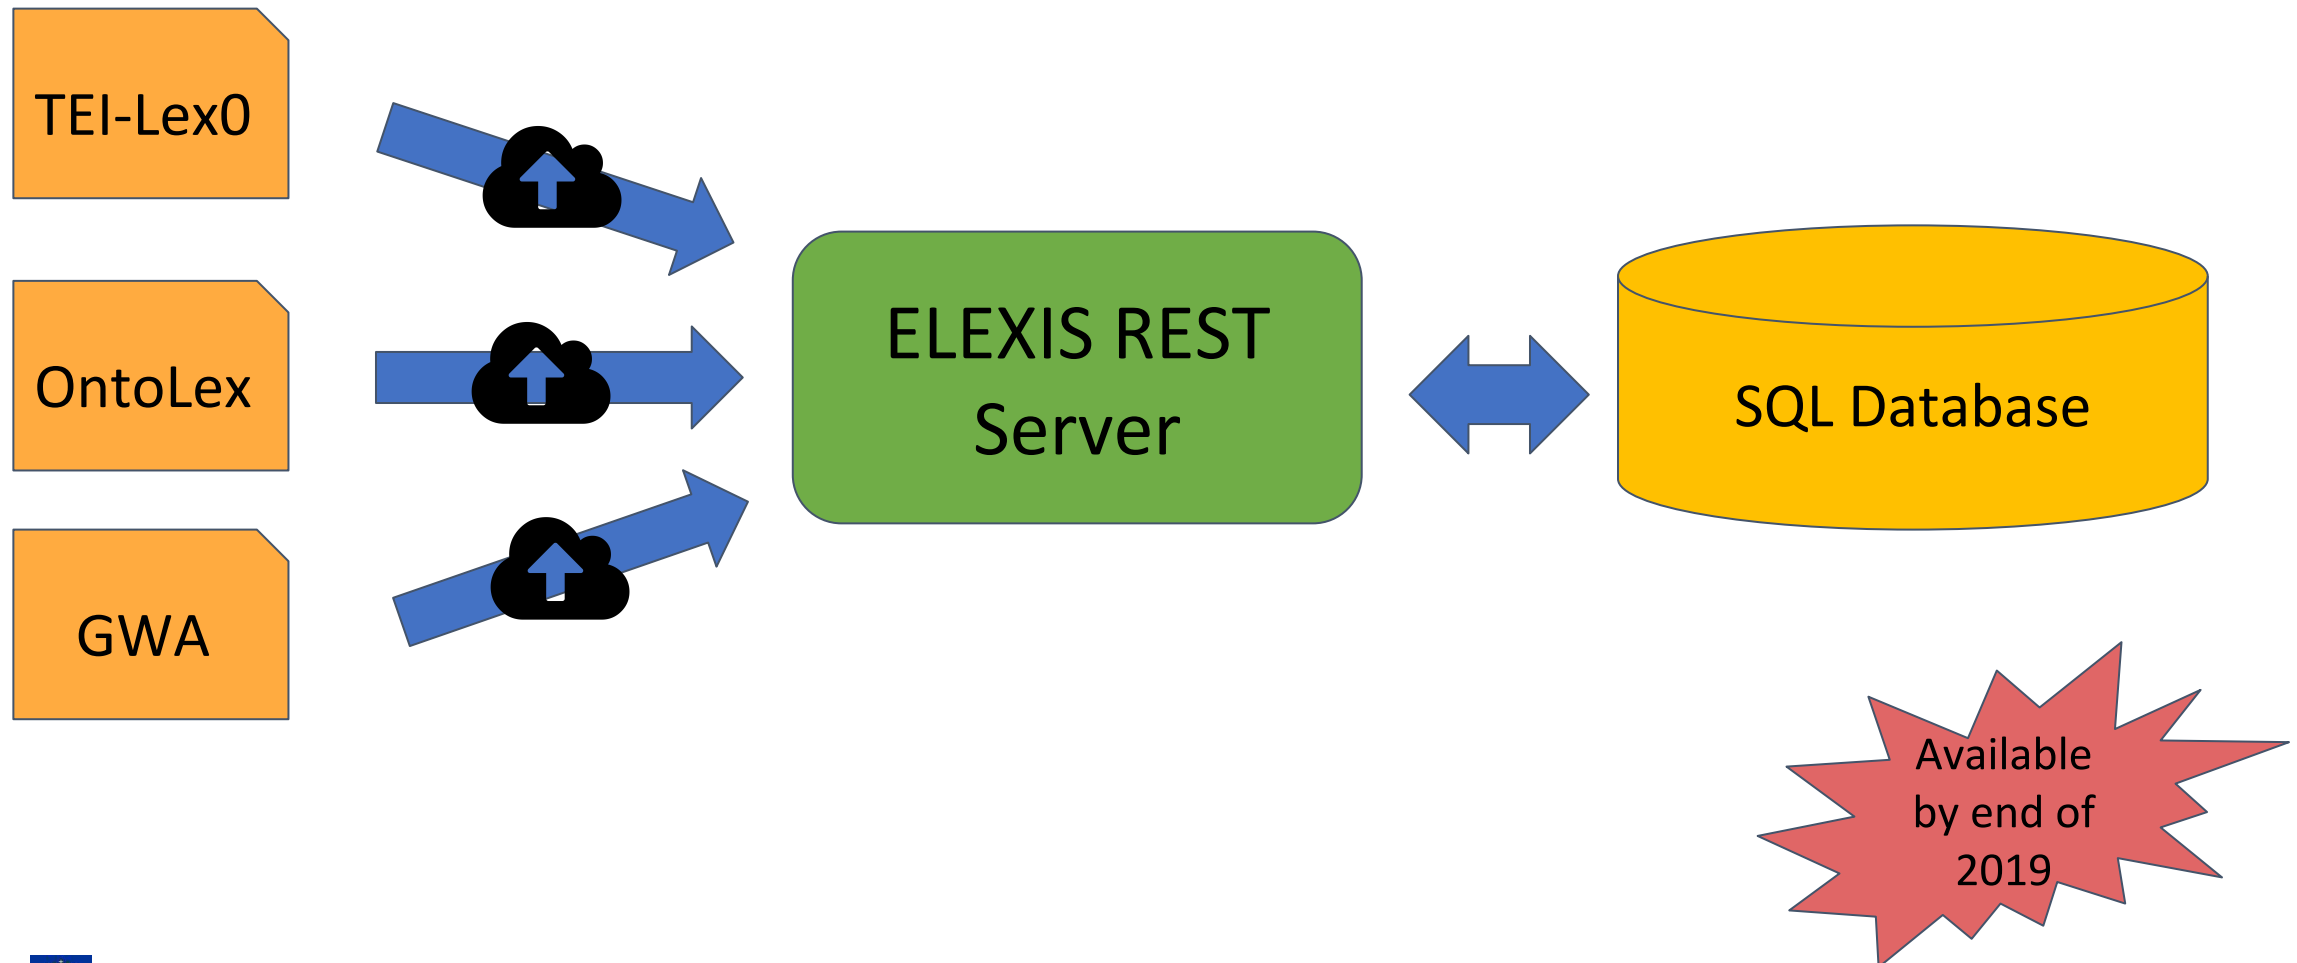

SCONJ: subordinating conjunction

SYM: symbol

VERB: verb

X: other

ELEXIS REST Server

ELEXIS Linking

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No 731015.

1 Activity involving mental or physical effort done in order to achieve a purpose or result.

'he was tired after a day's work in the fields'

+ More example sentences + Synonyms

1.1 Mental or physical activity as a means of earning income; employment.

'I'm still looking for work'

+ More example sentences + Synonyms

1.2 The place where one is employed.

'I was returning home from work on a packed subway'

+ More example sentences

1.3 The period of time one spends in paid employment.

'he was going to the theatre after work'

+ More example sentences

1.4 West Indian [count noun] A job.

'I decided to get a work'

+ More example sentences + Synonyms

2 A task or tasks to be undertaken.

'they made sure the work was progressing smoothly'

+ More example sentences + Synonyms

2.1 The materials for a task.

'she frequently took work home with her'

+ More example sentences

2.2 (in combination or with modifier works) British Activity involving construction or repair.

'extra costs caused by additional building works'

1. (heading, uncountable) Employment.

1. Labour, occupation, job. [quotations ▼]

My work involves a lot of travel.

2. The place where one is employed.

He hasn't come home yet, he's still at work.

3. One's employer

"I want to go to the R.E.M. reunion concert but I'm not sure if my work will let me off."

2. (heading, uncountable) Effort.

1. Effort expended on a particular task.

Holding a brick over your head is hard work. It takes a lot of work to write a dictionary.

2. Sustained human effort to overcome obstacles and achieve a result.

We know what we must do. Let's go to work.

3. Something on which effort is expended.

There's lots of work waiting for me at the office.

4. (physics) A measure of energy expended in moving an object; most commonly, force times time.

Work is done against friction to drag a bag along the ground.

5. (physics, more generally) A measure of energy that is usefully extracted from a process.

3. Sustained effort to achieve a goal or result, especially overcoming obstacles. [quotations ▼]

We don't have much time. Let's get to work piling up those sandbags.

4. (heading) Product; the result of effort.

1. (uncountable, often in combination) The result of a particular manner of production.

There's a lot of guesswork involved.

2. (uncountable, often in combination) Something produced using the specified material or to

We've got some paperwork to do before we can get started. The piece was decorated

3. (countable) A literary, artistic, or intellectual production. [quotations ▼]

It is a work of art.

the poetic works of Alexander Pope

4. (countable) A fortification.

William the Conqueror fortified many castles, throwing up new ramparts, bastions and

5. (uncountable, slang, professional wrestling) The staging of events to appear as real.

6. (mining) Ore before it is dressed.

(Can we find and add a quotation of Raymond to this entry?)

Monolingual Linking

The Dictionary Matrix

Search

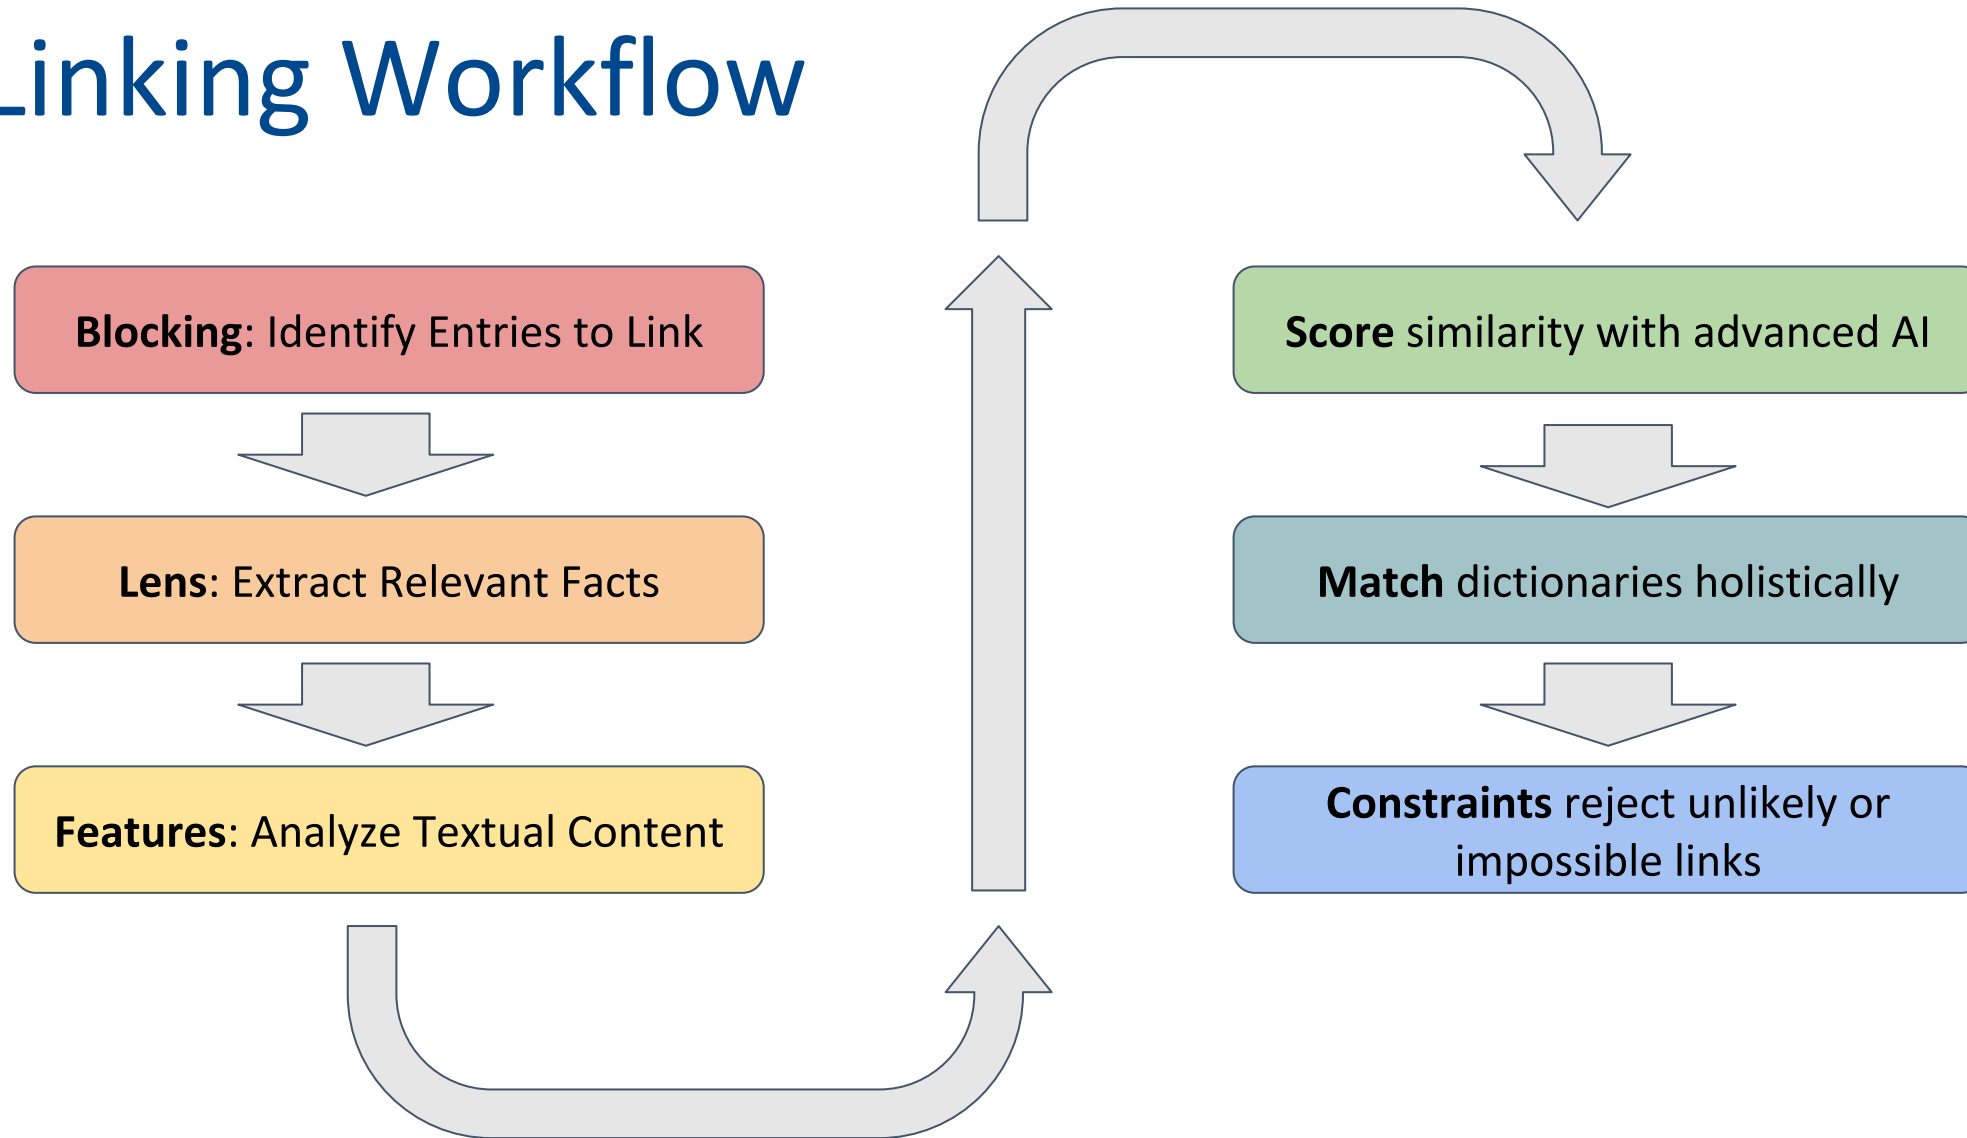

Bank

Search Results

Bank (English Noun)

1. “The land alongside or sloping down to a river or lake.” - From Oxford Dictionaries
“sloping land (especially the slope beside a body of water);” -
From Princeton WordNet
2. “A bank is a financial institution that accepts deposits from the public and creates credit” - From Wikipedia

Linking Workflow

Cross-lingual Linking

Available
Summer
2021

ELEXIS Quality Assurance

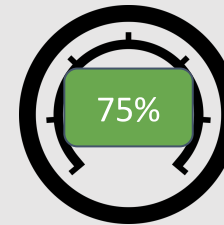

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No 731015.

Validation and Quality Assurance

Technical

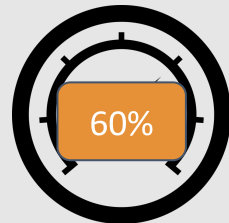

XML Validity

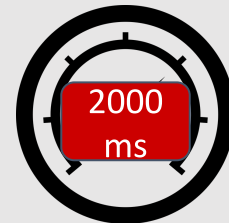

Normalized tags

Operational

Uptime

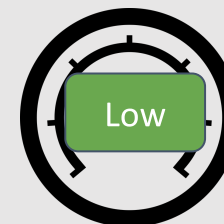

Ave. Response

Scientific

Sense per lemma

Definition Similarity

Available
Late 2021

Questions?

Or come see me at the booth.

